

Commend words.....

- Business leaders find that communication across site is
- If you have difficulty with across site communications, IP audio solutions from EMS will connect you to your people and customers effortlessly
- If you can't talk across your facilities, ems has the equipment to unlock your system, providing clear audio anywhere you need it.

- If your business is failing to communicate in real time with staff and clients, we have audio products to address every challenge, helping you talk, inform & react regardless of distance

If your business has problems with....

- Clarity – words - actions - advise - information
- Does your facility have video, and or lacks the ability to communicate across areas
- Are you like other business leaders who are frustrated that their video systems can see but not be heard, solutions from ems add audio to your movies making vision make sense
- That your voice can be heard with equipment from ems
- Many leaders become frustrated that control of staff, clients and systems cannot be managed in real-time, allowing expensive infrastructure to become ineffective, but by adding audio solutions from ems to that existing capital spend, the result is a release of communication value regardless of distance is realised.

Ems recommends you click to <https://storybrand.com/>

ems © 2025 proprietary information – all rights reserved all trademarks acknowledged

- sometime hey need solutions that enable communication and instructions across vast complexes or sites in
- We have audio solutions to manage the business whatever the event....

How our products have a cadence when said providing understanding and key framed words to allow conversations to start

Commend

If you cannot talk to, instruct or evacuate across your facilities, you need our network-based audio equipment which will project your voice into any area, over any distance, giving any message clarity

STid

Many facilities feel their access control is tired, outdated, and insecure, but with our knowledge in cards, readers and mobile technologies, which will refresh and provide your business with a stress-free restart

Parking

As a property investor you understand how difficult it is to attract tenants and clients to lease, our parking guidance, security and audio advertising solutions will help refresh, invigorate, increase visibility and attract more visitors, cheaply and effectively. Stress free.

Altos

The thinking robot bring LiDAR technology to security, management and production through tailored solutions, seeing the world as measurable dots in space, allowing us to see your business as data, automating decisions for the better.

Ems recommends you click to <https://storybrand.com/>

ems © 2025 proprietary information – all rights reserved all trademarks acknowledged